Guidelines for Final Reflection Paper
IST471: The Power of Memory

Objectives:
The purpose of this paper is for you to reflect on your experiences in this seminar and integrate your learning from all aspects of the course, including the assigned readings, class presentations, group discussions and your museum assignment

Paper Requirements:
Length: The final paper should be 1-2 pages long (double-spaced), using 12-point Times New Roman font.

Inclusion of Readings:
Please make specific reference to readings and other course materials to support, clarify, and contextualize your ideas. I want to see that you have not only read and understood assigned readings, but also thought about them in relation to your own experiences and learning.

Grading Criteria:
Because students learn different things in different ways, there are no "right or wrong" answers. Papers will be evaluated on content depth and quality. A thoughtful, well-written paper will include:

- Integrative, coherent and well-organized writing;
- Specific examples and detailed descriptions of learning experiences that were important for you;
- Reflections on your thought processes while you went through the seminar;
- Clear and precise connections between readings, concepts, and examples from class.
